✓ A PARAMOUNT-BURTON HOLMES TRAVEL-PICTURE ✓

March 27th is the release date of another Burton Holmes Travel-Picture relating to "Jerusalem"; this time he invites you to visit such portions of this ancient city which are comparatively modern and where you can see up-to-date Jerusalem and see what is going on in the daily life of its citizens at the present time. You are asked to attend an afternoon tea-party being given by United States Consul Glazebrook, in the midst of the American colony; at this party you will mingle with the high officials of Palestine and Jerusalem,--you will see "His Beatitudes", the heads of the Greek and the Armenian Church. You will meet the present Mayor of Jerusalem and also meet his predecessor. The tea will be served from a gigantic samovar in which it has been made by Christian women of Bethlehem; they serve Mohammedans and Christians with equal courtesy. Then you visit the section of the city in which the Zionist organization is conducting its schools, in which the children of the most conservative Jews mingle with other children, all being taught in the most up-to-date way. There are kindergartens and normal schools and agricultural schools; there are games and drills given by countless children. This newer town just outside the walls of the ancient city of Jerusalem, is indeed an eye-opener.
